At Atlantic Home Warranty we have worked hard to ensure our members and homeowners continued to have access to our services over these last three months. I am proud of our entire team and our industry partners who has been committed to keep our homeowners and employee's safety as a top priority.

Our Technical Managers remain working conducting in home visits for Conciliations, and Major Structural Defect inspections. We continue to use the necessary precautions and measures to keep you and our technicians safe.

Effective today, our office will reopen between 8 am – 4 pm, Monday to Friday. Safety protocols are in place and Atlantic Home Warranty is committed to complying with all required Governmental requirements.

On behalf of all of us at Atlantic Home Warranty, thank you for your continued business.

Sincerely,
